SOUND DETECTIVES

Sound Detectives is a fun sound game for children aged 3-6 years old. Designed to be played with or without the free Orchard Toys app, Sound Detectives encourages sound recognition and matching and memory skills. Every time a player correctly identifies a sound, they move one step closer to catching their sneaky thief! "We absolutely loved this game – it was so much fun! Easy to explain and play – the app was easy to download too. The sounds were all clear, so the children were able to recognise them. Eager to play again! A fabulous game and would recommend."

Orchard Toys £10.25 www.orchardtoys.com

1 2 3 ZOO

A great toy for developing toddlers, the 1.2.3 Zoo consists of a large rock combined with two separate enclosures which features five animals; two monkeys, two penguins and a bird. The bright colours and rounded shapes help to stimulate the imagination while the small details promote creativity. Plus, the larger pieces make it easier for little fingers to hold. "Our kids loved playing with this. The pieces are ideal for small hands and quite robust. The set helps to encourage learning and co-ordination through play and to develop fine motor skills. Would recommend this set alongside other zoo sets to extend/prolong play!"

PEPPA PIG MUDDY PUDDLE GAME

Hop, hop and off we go! Can you help George jump over the muddy puddles and make it to the top of the hill? Who will be the first to reach Peppa Pig? Speed ahead with the help of Peppa's friends who will boost you one, two or even three puddles ahead. But watch out for the deep puddles! Good luck in this exciting race! "The children loved this unique game, which kept them engaged. Was popular with 3 & 4 year olds and particularly with a 3 year old on the autistic spectrum, with repetitive play."

Ravensburger £19.99 www.ravensburger.co.uk

ELLI SMILES

Elli Smiles from Zapf Creation is a new, interactive doll and play partner like no other, who builds a real connection to her doll parents and can recognise her 'mummy' or 'daddy' with a huge smile when they wear their interactive Elli Smiles sunshine necklace. Elli also has 15+ other real baby functions, including wetting her nappy and sucking her dummy. "Elli fascinated our 18-month old, who played with her for hours, and engaged girls up to 9 years, especially the pliable facial skin and life-like expressions. The children particularly enjoyed the potty function! Some adult help required with younger ones for the dummy/bottle functions and setting up the 'mama' necklace."

MILLY & FLYNN PUZZLE & GROW BUILD YOUR OWN 3D TREEHOUSE & GARDEN PUZZLE KIT

These 3D puzzles are perfect for little gardeners. Using the assembly tool, push out the puzzle pieces and build your own 3D Tree-house. Next, plant your seeds and watch your garden grow! Don't forget to jot down notes in your Puzzle & Grow Diary either! This way you can keep track of what you have done and what you can see! Perfect size for windowsills.

"The children enjoyed making the treehouse, with some help as quite small parts, but they could follow the instructions easily. The plant started to grow the next day, so they were very excited. A fabulous idea to get the children interested in the world around us and how things grow. Could be a bit bigger for inclusion in a fairy garden."

COUNT WITH PEPPA

Trends UK's pre-school Electronic Learning Toys teach young fans new skills whilst having fun. Offering a unique and engaging play pattern, Count With Peppa will enable kids to have fun with the 10 colourful play coins and learn about numbers and colours. Give the coins to Peppa and she will count and respond. Retrieve them from the purse on her tummy and the fun starts over again "Good fun – very popular! My boy – a massive Peppa fan – loved the colours, numbers & coins and loved being able to push the buttons to change the songs. Adult supervision required for the under 3's and the purse could be temperamental, but would definitely buy this."

BABY PLAY TOWN

My first city discoveries. Assemble this smiley city then have fun learning all about it! Did you know there's a room specially for doing science at school? And that there's a cat hiding in a bush in the park? Learning about the city and wider world; Recognising places in community; Identifying roles and jobs; Developing a civic conscience. Montessori method; Self-correcting attachments. "Lovely inviting illustrations to entice children to describe what they see. The puzzle game with hidden pictures encouraged discussion, prompting recall of actual experiences. The little finger holes make pushing out the pieces easy and they stay in place, although pieces could be more robust."

MR TUMBLE LEARNING PAD

Mr Tumble Learning Pad includes 6 activities to play, with a touch sensitive screen and interactive quiz mode. Let your child learn with Mr Tumble and Friends. Press a picture/image on the tablet to hear fun sounds and facts. Includes six games to encourage learning about colours, numbers, shapes, letters, characters and musical instruments. The touch sensitive screen makes exploration fun and easy to follow. Helps with early colour, number and letter recognition, builds communication skills & encourages listening and attention. "This was enjoyable for both children and adults. Easy to turn on and navigate, it's fun and children required little adult support. The Makaton displayed for the numbers and abc items was useful – additional Makaton signs would have been even better. Robust with a bumper edge, but the On/Off switch was very sensitive."

Trends UK £17.99 www.trendsuk.com

CO-OPERATIVE STORYTELLING GAME

Talking together and telling stories. Are you ready for your first co-operative storytelling game? Spin the spinner, pick up a token and set out on an exciting adventure! This exciting team game provides opportunities galore to remember, make up and tell stories to your friends! "Helped children understand that stories have a beginning, middle and end. Older children had lots of fun and concentrated without knowing how much they were learning. Better for older children – four year olds lost attention."
